

MONARCH COMPLETE WITH TABLE EXTRACTOR

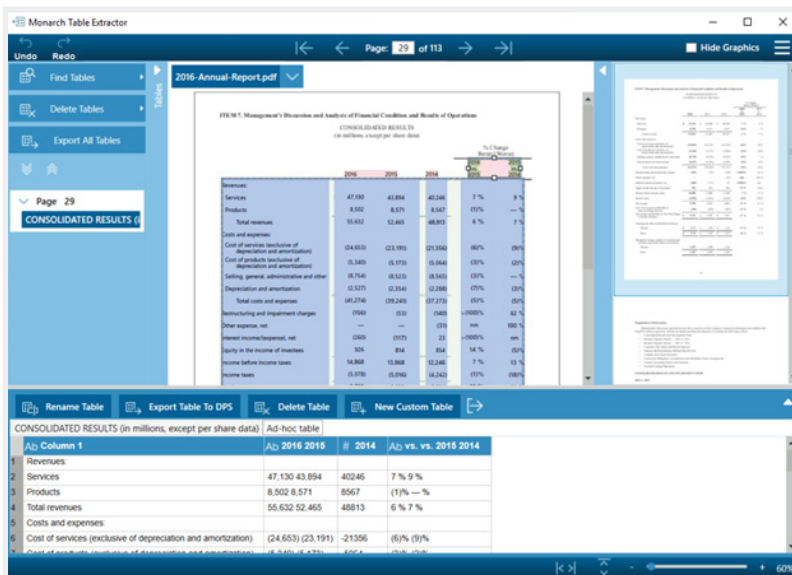

Improving the accessibility of data!

Not all data was designed to be analysis friendly - No Problem! Business analysts, finance teams and operations staff know the pain of manually entering data points from narrative documents. Whether its 10K statements, annual reports, financial prospectus, analyst research, inventory/pricing catalogs or any other document with embedded data, pulling information from tables within a PDF document into rows and columns is time consuming and error prone.

Monarch Complete with Table Extractor provides automated and/or manual extraction of data from narrative and complexly formatted PDF documents. Monarch's proven PDF conversion technology now allows users to easily capture data and access information that previously required them to manually copy, paste and reformat or retype into spreadsheets for analysis, reconciliation or reporting.

- ↳ Automatically find tables on specific pages in large, narrative documents
- ↳ Drag and highlight data to capture as well as header names
- ↳ Automated table extraction from documents
- ↳ Capture data as separate tables within a single page

Once data is extracted, users can export created tables into Monarch Complete to remove nulls, reformat values, or for blending with other data sources.
